

Yelton's Fine Jewelry

For twenty years, family-owned and operated Yelton's Fine Jewelry in West Chester has been offering one-of-a-kind jewelry with out-of-this-world service.

Walk the showroom and you'll find Roy Yelton, his wife JoAnn, their son Mark and his wife Tina helping customers choose from Yelton's large selection of loose and mounted diamonds. Yelton's carries a huge assortment of AGS and GIA certified diamonds, and is also an exclusive Hearts on Fire retailer. Whether shopping for the perfect engagement ring or a special gift, a diamond from Yelton's is sure to sparkle.

Looking for something else? Yelton's represents some of the finest diamond and color gemstone jewelry around from such well-known names as Simon G., Fana, Frank Ruebel, Galatea, and many more. Have one of Yelton's goldsmiths custom design something new or redesign an existing piece to your specifications.

Yelton's is also this area's number one source for the extremely popular Pandora and Trollbeads jewelry lines. Being an authorized gold retailer of both lines, you can be sure you're not only getting the best service, but the best selection as well.

As a full service jeweler, Yelton's offers expert jewelry repair and complete custom design services. Yelton's master goldsmiths work on-site to provide the highest quality of craftsmanship as well as a quick turnaround time. Jewelry inspections and cleaning are always free of charge!

Whatever you pick, feel confident in your choice. Yelton's offers the best quality, value, and service in any price range. Be sure to look for Yelton's as they relocate to their new super-store in late 2008. The new super-store will provide the Cincinnati region with the newest and best way to shop for any jewelry need.

Exquisite jewelry for any occasion, shop Yelton's.

